

“Where do I go from here?”- Resources for your Archive

Archival supplies: Hint-asking for bid pricing could save money!

Conservation Resources, 1-800-634-6932, www.conservationresources.com

Gaylord Brothers, 1-800-448-6160, www.Gaylord.com

Light Impressions, 1-800-828-6216, www.lightimpressionsdirect.com

Metal Edge, Inc., 1-800-634-6932, www.metaledgeinc.com

University Products, 1-800-628-1912, www.universityproducts.com

Binding/Conservation: Here are a few New England options, large & small.

Brown’s River Bindery: www.brownsriver.com 802- 878-3335

Microfilming is among their services.

Lynne Crocker Bookbinding, 855 Islington St, #224, Portsmouth, NH. 03801.

603- 431-4437 or email: govabooks@ttlc.net

Independently owned, services include repair, restoration, and new bindings. Projects can be large or small (a family Bible, a pamphlet).

Joseph J. Marotti Co, 335 Westford Rd, Milton, VT 05468. 802-893-6212

Northeast Document Conservation Center, 100 Brickstone Sq, Andover, MA 01810.

www.nedcc.org; 978-470-1010. They offer a full range of services.

Grants:

National Endowment for the Humanities, Preservation Assistance Grant. 1-202-606-8570. www.neh.gov/grants/guidelines/pag/html

“NH Moose Plate Grant” (Conservation License Plate Grant): For publicly owned material. Contact Janet Eklund, NH State Library: 271-2393 or email:

janet.eklund@dcr.nh.gov. An announcement is posted each January, with an end of March deadline at: www.nh.gov/nhsl/services/librarians/moose/index.html .

Emergency Number:

NEDCC offers a free 24/7 emergency hotline: 978-470-1010.